

PETRO 3003 Luboil

The innovative measurement system for lube oil to meet clean requirements

PETRO 3003 Luboil

The innovative measurement system for lube oil to meet clean requirements

Compensated measured delivery of lubricants from road fuel tankers and IBC containers

Flexible system solution with up to six independent measurement chambers

Compensated measured delivery approved in accordance with MID

Up to 999 different lubricant products

Optimised product change

PETRO 3003 Luboil

Measurement system for lube oil

PETRO 3003 Luboil

A single system for road fuel tankers and IBC containers:

- With up to six independent measurement chambers
- With one or two touchscreen displays
- For up to 999 different lubricant products
- With compensated measurement in accordance with MID
- With simply optimised product change
- As modular system solution with integrated FTL data communication

Features

- Compact solution to meet clean requirements
- Simply optimised product change
- Fast and simple operation
- Metrologically approved in accordance with MID
- Online diagnostics and update function
- Integration in office communication
- Complete system from one supplier